

One Good Turn

Rent free workspace. Real impact. Community first.

Boston House Business Centre believes in the power of community. One Good Turn is our initiative to offer rent free, professional office space to a business that is ready to thrive — in exchange for a meaningful contribution to the local community.

If your business could use a supported office space and you have an idea for a good deed that gives something back, we want to hear from you.

What's on Offer

- A workspace within Boston House Business Centre
- Access to our professional working environment, meeting rooms, and facilities
- A supportive business community and networking opportunities
- Promotion of your business and your good deed through our social media channels

What We're Looking For

- A business with a clear offering or product
- A social media presence that reflects your business activity
- A specific, realistic, and meaningful 'good deed' for the local community
- A genuine need for workspace that will help your business grow
